

https://libme.org/

Thanks to Pete, Ian, Mariah, and the Gang at NORTH FORK BREWING COMPANY

for hosting us.

Thank you Maui Chop House Food Truck for the delicious grub.

Competitions-

The 10th Annual LIBME Homebrew Competition will take place on November 12th. Entries are open, and not limited to Long Island brewers. Volunteer to WORK the competition or steward and get free entry to the Great Beer Expo. Patchogue's own Blue Point will choose a beer to brew and serve at their brewerv.

3rd Round of Last Brewers Standing

Joe-bi-wan Caiola is our only hope as he is the only LIBME member to advance to the 3rd round and have a chance to win their belt.

Handgrenades Autumn Competition our very own Gregg Kelley won second place with his Session IPA.

ProAm We will start taking entries for the 1st leg at our November meeting. There are three legs, with entries DUE at the November, January, and March meetings. All three winners get brewed at Sand City, and the best gets entered into GABF

WE WANT

Festivals-

The Blue Point Cask Fest is on November 5th at Blue Point (duh). Starfish is looking for volunteers to help throughout the festival, sign up is a must.

TBC Indie Cask Fest will take place on December 3rd. This festival is one worth checking out. The brewers walk around and answer any questions about their cask, or being a brewer in general.

Jen Davis Charity Cask Fest will take place at The Brewers Collective in January. In the past four years, Jen has raised over 19K for the diabetes camp where she volunteers.

Upcoming Events -

Stein Brew This will take place at Justin's house if you haven't already signed up, check your email for the signup sheet that was sent out. You MUST be a LIBME or Tri-Club member to attend!

Past Events-

Pour the Core was an amazing event. all six of our ciders at the event kicked, people were asking us where they could buy our concoctions. We had a large gathering throughout the day and can't wait to see some new enthusiasts.

Club Picnic another great event. Square Head was wonderful and made for a great place to hangout. Thanks to Cappy for cooking all of the food. Congrats to Joe Caiola for winning the wing competition

YOU to get involved in your club.

Follow us on 📢 and 🤟 to stay up to date on club events and happenings. Search for LIBME